

International Women's Day, 2022 celebration at TFRI on 8th March 2022

Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur organized “International Women's Day 2022” with the theme “Break The Bias” on 08/03/2022. Dr. G Rajeshwar Rao, ARS, Director, TFRI, Jabalpur extended welcome to Dr. Pragya Dhirawani, MBBS, DGO, Jabalpur Hospital & Research Center, Chief Guest of the function.

Program started with the lightening of the lamp by the dignitaries. Smt. Neelu Singh, GCR and Scientist G, TFRI shared her personal experience of Doctor's role in women's life.

Dr. G Rajeshwar Rao, Director, TFRI emphasized on the role of women in the national perspective in his welcome speech. He also shared his view how freedom fighters like Rani Laxmibai and Rani Durgawati heroism always motivate women's life.

Dr. Pragya Dhirawani, shared her experience as a doctor. Despite lots of education and laws by government the issue of female foeticides is still very critical. She emphasized that a woman can be empowered by the cooperation among the women's themselves.

Later on prizes were distributed by the dignitaries to the winners of the various competitions as a part of women's day celebration conducted for women employees of TFRI under supervision of Dr. Jangam Deepika, Scientist 'B'.

The program was ended with the Vote of thanks extended by the Dr. Nanita berry, HoD Extension. The function was successfully moderated by Dr. Nidhi Mehta, ACTO.

